KEITH SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE

ROCKFORD, IL – Prospective parents and students can visit one of the top college-preparatory schools in northern Illinois on April 15 when Keith School opens its doors to host its annual Open House. The event will take place in conjunction with the Lower and Upper School gallery night that kicks off Keith's two-week fine arts festival.

The Open House begins at 6:30 p.m. and runs until 8 p.m. Families are invited to tour the school, meet students and teachers, and learn about enrollment opportunities for the 2008-09 academic year.

As part of the fine arts festival, student artwork will be on display in both the Lower and Upper Schools and from 6-7 p.m. guests will be entertained by a string ensemble concert. For more information about the Open House or fine arts festival call (815) 399-8823.

Keith School is an independent, nonsectarian, college-preparatory school founded by Belle Emerson Keith in 1916. Located on a 15-acre campus overlooking the Rock River, Keith serves students from age three through grade 12 from the Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin area. The school is a member of the National Association of Independent Schools and fully-accredited by the Independent Schools Association of the Central States and the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Additional information about Keith School is available at Keithschool.com
