Keith Country Day School Theatre Presents “Quilters”

ROCKFORD, IL – Keith Country Day School's theatre department will perform “Quilters” on October 7-8 at 7:30 p.m. inside the Upper School building. Written by Barbara Damashek and Molly Newman, the production will be directed by Jim Radloff.

“Quilters” is the story of a pioneer woman and her six daughters. The show blends a series of interrelated scenes of the beauty, terror, joy and harsh challenges of frontier life, all represented by various patches, which are assembled into a colorful quilt. This is the first performance of the year for the Keith drama department. This show will be adjudicated for the 2009 Illinois High School Theater Festival.

The cast includes Ania F., Sarah I., Sylvia J., Miranda L., Ashley R-H., Katherine S. and Ashley W.

Anna J. is the Production Stage Manager.

Tickets are free but a $5 donation is requested at the door to help cover the cost of the royalties. For more information, contact Jim Radloff or Michelle Bonzi at 815-399-8823.

Keith Country Day School is an independent, nonsectarian, college-preparatory school founded by Belle Emerson Keith in 1916. Located on a 15-acre campus overlooking the Rock River, Keith serves students from age three through grade 12 from the Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin area. The school is a member of the National Association of Independent Schools and fully-accredited by the Independent Schools Association of the Central States and the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
